Sonoma Delegation Protests Women's Farm Before Senate

Suit For Damages Filed By Victim Of Automobile Mishap

PROMINENT SONOMA RESIDENTS AGAINST RE-ESTABLISHMENT

Senate Committee Hears Both Sides Tuesday; Governor Urged By Sonomans To Veto Measure.

A delegation of prominent Sonoma Valley residents motored to Sacramento Tuesday where they appeared before the senate committee at the state capitol to protest the re-opening of the Farm for Delinquent Women at Buena Vista. The members of the party were W. Bundschu, F. Wedekind, Mrs. Eliza Shepard, Mrs. Henry Hyde, Mrs. M. Cowgill, Mrs. W. Clewe and W. L. Murphy. The Sonomans were cordially received by the Governor, his secretary and also by Senator Slater, who introduced them to his colleagues in the committee room.

The senators seemed deeply interested in facts gleaned from the local visitors, who told of the conduct of the institution during its short life, its failure and its menace to Sonoma Valley. As taxpayers, some of the delegation voiced objections to its re-establishment anywhere, while others expressed themselves as opposed to its continuance here in a small community where its presence was conspicuous and had a bad influence.

"Where would you put these women, if not in Sonoma?" asked a Southern California proponent of the measure, of Mrs. Shepard.

The arrangement and use of the old Kate Johnson mansion by the former administrative force of the farm was pointed out, the entire place being devoted to job holders quarters, while the inmates were crowded in the attic in a dormitory. One of the delegates told of the resentful attitude of those whom the state sought to rehabilitate by reciting the fate of clothes made for inmates one day and burned up by them the next. The frequent escapes of the women and their capture by officers was recounted and here a surprise was sprung by advocates of the farm, who read a letter from "Chief of Police" Albertson, of Sonoma, denying that the wild women had ever given anyone trouble. The committee was referred to Deputy Sheriff Ryan, who was constantly rounding up escapes and called to intercede in riots at the farm.

CONEY ISLAND TO OPEN

Tonight will see the big amusement park known as Coney Island, re-opened by Louis Parente, with a big dance and many concessions to attract amusement lovers.

Mr. Parente has engaged the best orchestra obtainable and put the floor in the capable hands of Al Hoffman, a professional floor manager, and local assistants.

Harry Fine, local manager for Parente, will have charge of the concessions and promises that everything will be conducted high class and the public well pleased with the opening.

This Still Ought To Still Them

Among trophies of the prohibition war captured by officers in a recent raid in Sonoma county is one said to be the king-pin of all home made stills. The "animal," now at the court house in Santa Rosa, was constructed out of an old granite coffee pot, the spout of which had been replaced by copper tubing put in with plaster of paris and bound around with adhesive tape. The coils were connected up with an old rusty coal oil can. The liquor distilled in this contraption is said to have made the jackass maker crazy after three drinks. He drank it while it was still warm and tried to make others take a drink of the stuff. When they refused to sample the concoction he tried to murder them. He was arrested and the coffee pot still confiscated by the officers.

SAD DEATH OF A LITTLE GIRL

The Schellville neighborhood was plunged into grief Wednesday by the news that little Clover Lucille Peterson, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Peterson, of the Brendel ranch, had succumbed to diphtheria after an illness of five days. The disease was brought to the ranch by a visitor from San Francisco, and now a surviving brother of deceased and the mother are down with the dread malady.

The sorrowing home has been quarantined by Dr. Thomson.

Funeral services for the beloved little girl were conducted by Rev. S. E. Crowe and ladies of the M. E. Aid Society, Thursday on the grounds of the Peterson home.

Mrs. Charles Potter has been with the sufferers and is doing all she can to aid the stricken family.

WEST COAST TRANSIT CO. TO ENTER FIELD

Purchase of the Dunham stage line, operating between Santa Rosa and Healdsburg for approximately $30,000, is expected to be completed this week by representatives of the West Coast Transit Company, owners of the Redwood Highway stages, operating between Crescent City, Eureka and San Francisco.

The deal, which has been considered for the past year, is nearing completion, according to A. Dunham, the owner of the Dunham stage line that operates between Napa and Healdsburg, via Sonoma and Santa Rosa.

The matter of selling the franchise has been placed before the railroad commission and favorable action is expected within two days, Mr. Dunham stated. As soon as the transfer is approved, the transit company will close the deal.

Dunham purchased the Healdsburg line from the Birch Company two years ago. By the taking over of the line by the West Coast Transit Company, the line will become part of a chain of stage lines extending from the Oregon line to San Francisco.

Prominent Farmer's Trip To the Lumber Camps Has A Tragic Ending

Sonoma Valley friends of Wilbur W. Hall, well known farmer of the El Verano section, and a school trustee of that place, were shocked to hear that he had been killed in the fatal plunge of an automobile near Gazelle. The accident occurred on a dangerous curve where the car, driven by George Condrey, a contractor who accompanied Hall, and a man named Maloon, was forced from the road by another machine and somersaulted down an embankment. Mr. Condrey, owner and driver of the car, and Mr. Hall occupied the front seat of the car, and Mr. Maloon the rear. The latter was not injured, Condrey received cuts about the face and a broken rib, and Hall was killed instantly when his skull and shoulders were crushed.

Mr. Condrey, a contractor of Weed, is a brother-in-law of Mr. Hall and had sent for him to assist in placing a glass front and remodeling a business house in Yreka.

Word of the fatality was brought here by Mr. Horn, a brother-in-law of deceased, who came to El Verano to apprise Mrs. Hall of the tragic death of her husband. He found that the wife of the accident victim had gone to Ukiah for a district meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association, in which she has been prominent, and the sad news was conveyed to her there.

The occupants of the car which forced the Hall auto from the road were detained by the authorities of Weed, pending an investigation of the fatality.

Wilbur W. Hall was a native of Michigan, aged 50 years. In addition to his widow, who is the daughter of a prominent Northern California family (the Horns, of Hornbrook) deceased leaves a son, Wallace Hall, a popular high school student. This fatal accident makes another bereavement in local high school circles, where, during the past year several students have had parents accidentally killed.

The Halls came to El Verano a few years ago and purchased the beautiful Hawkins home in the foothills. They had valuable property interests in the North, but came to Sonoma Valley for its milder climate. Mr. Hall had followed the timber and lumber business prior to coming here, and had gone North to help relatives there on work with which he was so familiar. The accident occurred in the evening while he was enroute home from a lumber camp.

Deceased had taken a prominent part in the educational and social life of the community since coming here as had his family, and his untimely death is regretted by a large circle of friends. Mr. Hall was a splendid looking man, in the prime of life, and was esteemed by all wherever he was known. Many messages of condolence have been received by the widow and son in their great sorrow.

ILLICIT LIQUOR CAUSES RE-ARREST

The arrest of T. W. Howard, 40, who six weeks ago was given a "floater" out of Sonoma county as a result of his arrest while operating a still for Tony Francheski, Sonoma barber, marked the activities of the dry squad Thursday. Howard was engaged in the same occupation, it was announced at the sheriff's office.

The raiding party, led by Sheriff John M. Boyes and including Deputies Marvin Robinson and Joe Ryan and Operative E. F. Westphall, found Howard guarding a shack in an almost inaccessible spot in the Sonoma mountains back of Agua Caliente they report. As on the previous occasion, when Francheski's ranch near Sonoma was visited, Howard ran from his shelter and tried to elude the officers. He was found crouched in the brush by Deputy Robinson and taken to Santa Rosa, where he was locked in the county jail.

A 50 gallon still, a quantity of mash and 150 gallons of jackass brandy were seized.

On the occasion of the first raid on Francheski's property last January, liquor was seized both at the ranch and barber shop owned by the Sonoma man, and he paid a fine of $500. Howard, who was without funds, served 35 days in the county jail, and then was released with orders from Justice Vaughan of Santa Rosa to leave the county.

YOUNG EX-SERVICE MAN CALLED TO ETERNITY

Edward C. Regusci, 28 years old, only son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Regusci, of Glen Ellen, and brother of Mrs. Ira Hein of Napa, Mrs. Charles Locarnini of Napa and Miss Mary Regusci of San Francisco, passed away at St. Joseph Hospital, Stockton, this week, of pneumonia. His final illness was the aftermath of lung trouble which developed after service overseas during the World War, when he was gassed while at the front with his division.

Edward Regusci will be remembered by former schoolmates through out Sonoma Valley for his many excellent traits of character and his death will be sincerely regretted by all who knew him, both here and in Stockton, where he made his home.

The funeral took place in Napa, with high mass at the Catholic church celebrated by Rev. Father Cantillan.

The family has the sympathy of a large circle of friends in its bereavement and loss, particularly so as Mrs. Regusci, mother of deceased, is now ill in a hospital.

Politician Agreeably Surprised

Among worthy solons who have recently had an earful from club women on the Delinquent Farm is Senator Rush of Contra Costa county. The Senator was on the committee interviewed by Sonoma folks Tuesday, and was singled out by Mrs. Eliza Shepard for special greeting. Not recognizing the superintendent of the Jack London ranch, at first he took her for just another club woman, who was going to buttonhole him to vote for the farm. Seeing he was puzzled and disturbed Mrs. Shepard refreshed his memory thusly: "Well, Senator, how's that Shorthorn heifer the London ranch sold you two years ago?" To say that Senator Rush was pleased to discuss the little cattle deal is putting it mild. Here was a wholesome topic for cow county friends.

MAY ORGANIZE KIWANIS CLUB

At an enthusiastic meeting followed by a banquet at the Plaza Hotel on Friday night of last week, a group ot well known local business men discussed the need of a local club to be affiliated with the Kiwanis, or some other national organization. The opinion was most favorable and a nucleus of a very active and live wire branch was evident.

M. L. Renslinger was chosen temporary chairman and presided at the meeting. He gave an excellent talk as did Dr. McGrath, A. J. Martinson, M. F. Spread, L. J. Tracy, Louis F. Lambert, W. W. Carter, and others

The club met for lunch yesterday and the attendance was augmented by other prominent Sonomans.

BIG TIME HELD BY THE HERMANN SONS

Looked as if the population of Petaluma was holding an "alten heim" week at Sonoma Saturday night of last week. There certainly were plenty of Petalumans over in Sonoma for the installation of officers of Sonoma Lodge, Sons of Hermann, and for Hermine Lodge, which is the ladies' adjunct of Sonoma's unit of this Order —an order believing thoroughly in live and let live principals and also in enjoying life and the good things that life affords.

And while there was such a fine gathering of Hermann sons and daughters over that way they took a drive through the Valley of the Moon and inspected in that blessed region the mansion of a millionaire, which mansion has been offered this organization at a figure which makes it quite likely that the edifice will become a home for the aged to be conducted by the Sons of Hermann and its auxiliaries. It has been decided not to make public the place until the deal is closed.

VICTIM OF AUTO ACCIDENT ASKS FOR $20,000

H. Reynaud, Former Resort Man of Fetters Springs, Named As Defendant In Action.

Suit for $22,650 for injuries received when he was struck by the automobile of H. Reynaud, San Francisco hotel proprietor and former Fetters Springs resort owner, was filed in the superior court Wednesday morning by John Basileu of El Verano.

In his complaint, drawn up by W. F. Cowan, Basileu claims that he was standing by his parked car at the side of the Sonoma-Santa Rosa highway about a mile from Fetters Springs, when Reynaud's car approached at excessive speed. Disregarding the presence of Basileu and his machine at the side of the road, it is alleged, Reynaud's automobile smashed into Basileu's car, hurling the plaintiff forcibly to the ground, resulting in severe injuries to the body and head.

As a result of his injuries, which included a basal fracture of the skull, Basileu will be unable to leave the hospital for at least a year, and will probably suffer permanently he claims.

He asks $1500 for hospital and medical bills already incurred and likely to be incurred in the future; $400 for damages to his car; $50 a week for loss of time from his work as barber and operator of a pool room and soft drink counter; $10 a day for loss of his car; $400 depreciation and $20,000 damages for pain suffered.

About 35 members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Sonoma attended the dedication of the handsome new I. O. O. F. hall at Windsor on Friday night of last week. Judge Rolfe Thompson of Santa Rosa made the dedicatory speech.

There was dancing, vaudeville and a supper to complete the big festivities. Those who went from here were Mesdames A. Palmer, Ada Pauli, Nellie Hiser; Mr. and Mrs. P. Angove, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lund, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pauli, Miss Nettie McConochie, Edna Cooper, Bertha Warthorst, Gladys Small, Alpha Johnson, Nellie Peterson, Jessie Hiser, Dorothy Bancroft; George Angove, Frank Giorno, F. HOW ABOUT YOUR

GROCERIES

Might As Well Save Money By Trading At

Batto's Sonoma Store

WEST SIDE PLAZA SONOMA, CALIF.

SONOMA GROWS THE EARLY STRAWBERRY

Sonoma each year plants more of its acreage to strawberries, for the soil is well adapted to the luscious fruit and the climate produces early berries which command top prices.

This week Benjamin McKenna, of the former Bettencourt place, who is already known as the strawberry king of Buena Vista, brought to the Index-Tribune office some of the finest early berries we have seen. They are of the Brandywine variety and in addition to being a good looking berry are wonderful shippers, firm, and good keepers. Mr. McKenna has planted a large acreage and had ripe berries April 1st, despite the late spring. He had wide experience in strawberry culture in Sierra county and is scientific propagator.

George Dolcini, our young agricultural student friend, who last year raised some wonderful fruits and vegetables, has started this season with early ripening strawberries, which are of the usual Dolcini excellence. The berries are of the same variety exhibited at the high school last year, although they have not attained the mammoth size of the later crop, due to the rain and damp weather.

SPOKE AT CLUB ON BETTER HOMES WEEK

Mrs. Robert Ely, chairman of the Santa Rosa District, addressed the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club Friday of last week on "Better Homes Week." Mrs. Ely represents the Home Economics Department of the United States Agricultural Department, and as a result of her enlightening talk, the Sonoma club may feature a demonstration May 10th to 17th the date of the nation wide campaign for better homes.

One of the artistic and modern bungalows of the Petaluma Development Company in Monte Vista Park may be secured for the demonstration. Sonoma merchants have expressed themselves as willing to cooperate and to loan furnishings, labor saving devices, etc., for the big week.

The public would be invited to see the model home as assembled by the club women.

COME ON IN, THE VALLEY IS FINE

Sonoma Valley never offered better attractions to visitors than it does in 1925. The season will be in full swing the latter part of this month, and the merry month of May should find the lure of the Valley of the Valley of the Moon full upon all who seek recreation and health for week end outings or vacation time.

For the first time in the history of Sonoma—the history which begins with the trail of the padres over the brown hills—this favored section has highway, the magic carpet which has made California wonderlands teem while others, such as this, slept and dreamed of the day when roads would turn the tide of prosperity. And now Sonoma's dream has been realized. With highway from San Francisco completed last year, and highway recently thrown open over the picturesque Santa Rosa road, our gates have swung wide and Sonoma Valley plans to welcome the tourist and traveler by the hundreds.

With many excellent hotels, resorts and an auto camp, there will be ample accommodations for all.

With our famous mineral springs at Boyes, Fetters and Agua Caliente highly improved and enlarged, facilities for bathing and swimming were never so excellent. Tonight sees the opening of the big amusement park at Verano and amusements and concessions will be featured also this year at all the Springs.

A survey of Sonoma Valley's facilities for entertaining its guests this year proves that this is to be the land of heart's desire, the goal of those who seek health, rest and happiness. Welcome, motorists and travelers in general, during 1925.

Petaluma people who believe the booze detective bill should be paid, should pay it and thus end the matter. Those who signed the petition to sanction its payment should put their hands in their pockets and back up their conviction with coin. The City Trustees who were not consulted about the incurring of the debt are standing by their guns and the detective agency awaits money for its sleuth service to the Egg City.

GRAVENSTEIN FAME WILL BOOST SONOMA LAND

Sonoma Valley, home of the famous Gravenstein apple, one of the earliest varieties on the market, is to soon take its proper place among the finest and most widely known and productive fruit centers of the world, for the Gravenstein apple is at last to be properly presented and advertised.

The meeting of Sebastopol, Sonoma and Napa growers, held at Sebastopol recently, was for the purpose of perfecting an organization which will further the interest of this renowned apple and the sections which grow it. A fund of from $30,000 to $40,000, to be raised by the growers through a tax of a few cents on each box of apples marketed will enable the Gravenstein to break into society right, and incidentally will increase the land values of Sonoma Valley, as yet ridiculously low because of the fact that the world knows little of our soil and what it can produce.

The orange of Southern California, the prune of Santa Clara, the cherries of Vacaville and the apples of the North have made these lands highly valuable. Sonoma is yet to harvest its yield of wealth which will accrue when once the Gravenstein apple proclaims to the world that it is grown in this Mission Valley.

Objects of the new organization, which is to blaze the trail for this fine publicity are as follows:

To secure the widest possible distribution.

To avoid market gluts and famines.

To hold shipments at the peak periods.

To market only reputable products.

To sell wholesale to the jobbing trade.

To do education work with the trade.

To secure and put to effective common use complete daily market information as to movement of products and conditions of all markets.

To establish grades and standards and improve packing methods.

To establish brands to facilitate national advertising and collectively put on national advertising campaigns.

To develop by-products out of lower grades—first, to salvage waste; second, to save glutting markets in periods of over-production.

To purchase collectively the major supplies used in growing and preparing for market.

To study methods of shippers to increase efficiency and lower cost.

To gather statistics as to cost and trend of production and consumption so that all interests may be informed and thus avoid disastrous periods of over-production or to increase production as conditions warrant.

To handle national industrial problems, as: Freight and traffic questions; tariff representation before Congress; legislation, state and national, affecting the industry.

BAD LAWMAKING

(From San Francisco Bulletin)

Some time before its final week is over the legislature will have to dispose of the bill to re-establish the Sonoma County "Farm" for Delinquent Women. This proposal is typical of so much that is mistaken in our sociology that it is worth a moment's attention.

The Sacramento Bee refers to it as "a most outrageous, inhuman and shameful bill to re-establish the bastile for fallen women in Sonoma county," and says that assemblymen are "being buffaloed into voting against their honest convictions on this subject." The latter statement is quite correct; but the main objection to the Sonoma home was that a bastile was exactly what it was not. It was a pleasant place of retirement where wrong doers received maternal care, and some academic efforts were made at their "rehabilitation:"

Society should be less interested in the rehabilitation of wrong-doers than in promoting conditions that prevent people from going wrong, and this sort of thing reverses the proper tendencies. It is of a piece with the rest of our sentimental legislation in that it proposes to better the world by giving vice the reward of virtue and making guilt as comfortable as innocence; to save the weak for seed and restore the enemies of society to citizenship.

There is no improvement to be expected from any such process. Theodore Roosevelt once said, "Guilt is always personal." It is. It is not the fault of society as a whole but of the perversity of the individual, and, generally speaking, nothing will cure it but punishment. Normally the social sanctions fall with terrible severity on those that take to criminal courses, and they should. Normally the worst thing that can befall a criminal is the fact that he is a criminal with all that it cannotes of degradation, ostracism and hardship.

If prostitutes are to be nursed by the state in some paradise such as the Sonoma home was before the building providentially burned, if they are to be socially rehabilitated by the state out of taxes taken from honest men and women struggling with mortgages and doctor bills and household accounts, then we have set up an institution whose tendency is to upset all the normal and healthful influences bearing on human conduct, to invert vice and virtue or at least make their material conditions indistinguishable, and to remove the salutary fear of degradation from many to whom some such fear is the only restraining influence.

The Sonoma Farm sort of legislation is sentimental in impulse and vicious in tendency. It makes a joke of the majesty of the law. It may pass the legislature, but it is a good guess that the governor will have none of it.

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

The regular social afternoon of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club was called to order by the president, Mrs. George Leiser, on Friday, April 17th. Only the necessary business was transacted, which was the reading of several communications, and the submitting of two new names to the membership committee.

The following program was provided by high school students, and was greatly enjoyed:

Violin solo, Norman Heggie.

Reading, Vernon Dahlquist.

Trombone duet, Wallace Hall and Herbert Tracy.

Saxophone solo, Cecil Hunter.

Miss Edna Cooper, in the absence of Miss Warthorst, who had charge of the program, next introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Robert Ely, of Rincon Valley. Mrs. Ely who is chairman in this district for "Better Homes In America," told us something of the campaign, and in part, said:

"The purpose of the movement for Better Homes In America is—

"To put knowledge of high standards in house building, home furnishing and equipment, and home life within the reach of all citizens.

"To encourage the building of sound attractive, economical single family houses in which the highest type of wholesome and private home life may be possible, to encourage the reconditioning and remodeling of old houses to render them sanitary, attractive and convenient, and to encourage thrift for home ownership.

"To encourage general study of the housing problem and of problems of family life, and to help each community, as a result of its study, to demonstrate each year the best types of house construction, home furnishing, and labor saving devices for the home which are within the reach of families in moderate circumstances.

"To encourage sensible and appropriate furnishing for the home and the elimination of needless burdens in housekeeping.

"To encourage instruction in home economics and home life in the public schools, and particularly the construction of school practice cottages through which the girls and women of the community may receive continuous instruction in the ways of facilitating and improving household activities.

"To promote the improvement of house lots, yards and neighborhoods, with particular attention to the beautification of premises, the promotion of home gardens and the home playground.

"To extend knowledge of the ways and means of making home life more attractive and happier through the development of home music, home play, home art, and the home library and to encourage special study and discussion of the problem of character building in the home.

"The national headquarters of Better Homes In America serves also as a clearing house of sources of information on home problems; conducts research on problems of home improvement; and seeks to co-ordinate the activities of national, state and local organizations whcih deal with any aspect of home life."

Mrs. Ely is to hold a demonstration of better homes at her home at Melitta, from May 11th to 17th. All are asked to go and see what Mrs. Ely has done with an old barn. She has not paid out a cent of money, but converted this barn into a studio. It is painted black, with yellow trimming. Mrs. Ely said some one asked her why she painted it black, and she said because there were more black autos than any other color. Mrs. Ely's son-in-law, who has an auto paint shop, gave her all the paint from the paint scrap bucket. The studio is on the road to the golf links near Santa Rosa.

Mrs. Ely then gave a short talk on "Out Doors." In speaking on this subject she said that in planting flowers most people wanted quick results, this being particularly true of renters. For beautiful flowering annuals Mrs. Ely advised the following, which our grandmothers had in their gardens: Balsam or ladies slipper, pot marigold, calliopsis, bachelor's button or cornflower, asters, cosmos, larkspur, African and French marigolds, nasturtiums, petunias, phlox, snap dragons and zinnias. For vines the most satisfactory is the spomora or moon flower, and Mrs. Ely says the blue variety is very beautiful.

The club members and guests then gathered around dainty tea tables and Mrs. Rose Bartoli, assisted by several members, served delicious home made cake and tea.

SONOMA DELEGATION PROTESTS WOMEN'S FARM

a car and taken with a pal to Santa Rosa where they were sentenced to spend 40 days in the Sonoma county jail because the farm here could not manage them, was recalled.

Sonoma club women of the protesting committee brought out the fact that the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club had tabled the request of federated club women to endorse the reestablishment of the institution.

In addition to the local protestants women officials of the Ventura school for girls vigorously denounced the plan to try to reform delinquent women and characterized the attempt as a visionary scheme and a waste of state money.

The senate committee, while evidently deeply impressed with the criticisms of the farm, had quite evidently pledged their support to women favoring the institution and were taking no chances on losing the women's vote, while pretty well satisfied that Governor Richardson will veto the bill. As one of the local delegation said, it was a case of "let Friend Richardson do it."

Senators refuse to jeopardize their political futures by antagonizing the army of women lobbying for this bill. Governor Richardson, who acts in the interest of the taxpayer, regardless of political threats, must come to the assistance of Sonoma Valley by vetoing this measure if we are to be saved from the unsavory notoriety and problem of having these state charges again in our midst.

High School News

By LELAND CLERICI

At the Thursday assembly the students enjoyed the following: "The Palms," by the orchestra. "Courtesy In School and Public," by Margaret Corcoran. Saxophone solo, by Cecil Hunter. "Speech to the Players," Hamlet, Ruth Ritz. "Graduation Day March," by the orchestra. After the program there was a discussion on school spirit and on the organization of a track team.

The drama students from the Humboldt State Teachers' College came to the high school and gave a delightful program Friday afternoon. The music director said before the program that he was not going to give any opera, but just a little musical recreation, or jazz. The program consisted of a number of school songs rendered by the boys' and girls' glee clubs combined, songs by a boys' quartette, a few numbers by a girls' quartette, readings by one of the girls and music played by a 10 piece jazz orchestra. As the concluding number the trombone player played a solo. After the program Walter Carter took them around to all the historical landmarks of Sonoma.

Wednesday evening a 12 piece orchestra went to Santa Rosa to play over the radio. This is the same orchestra which played for "Stop Thief" at the high school a short time ago. There were on the air at 6:30 from the station of L. A. Drake.

Sonoma versus Healdsburg with a victory of 7 to 5 for the home team last Saturday. The home team got ahead in the first inning and after that they were never in danger. Joe "Babe" Mazza showed what he could do on the mound with some support. In many of the innings he set the Healdsburg men down in order. The Sonoma team has only to win one more game to get a block letter. If they should win two games they will have a chance for the championship.

The tennis game scheduled between Sonoma and Calistoga was not played because Calistoga had no tennis team so Sonoma received the game by forfeit, adding one more game to the list.

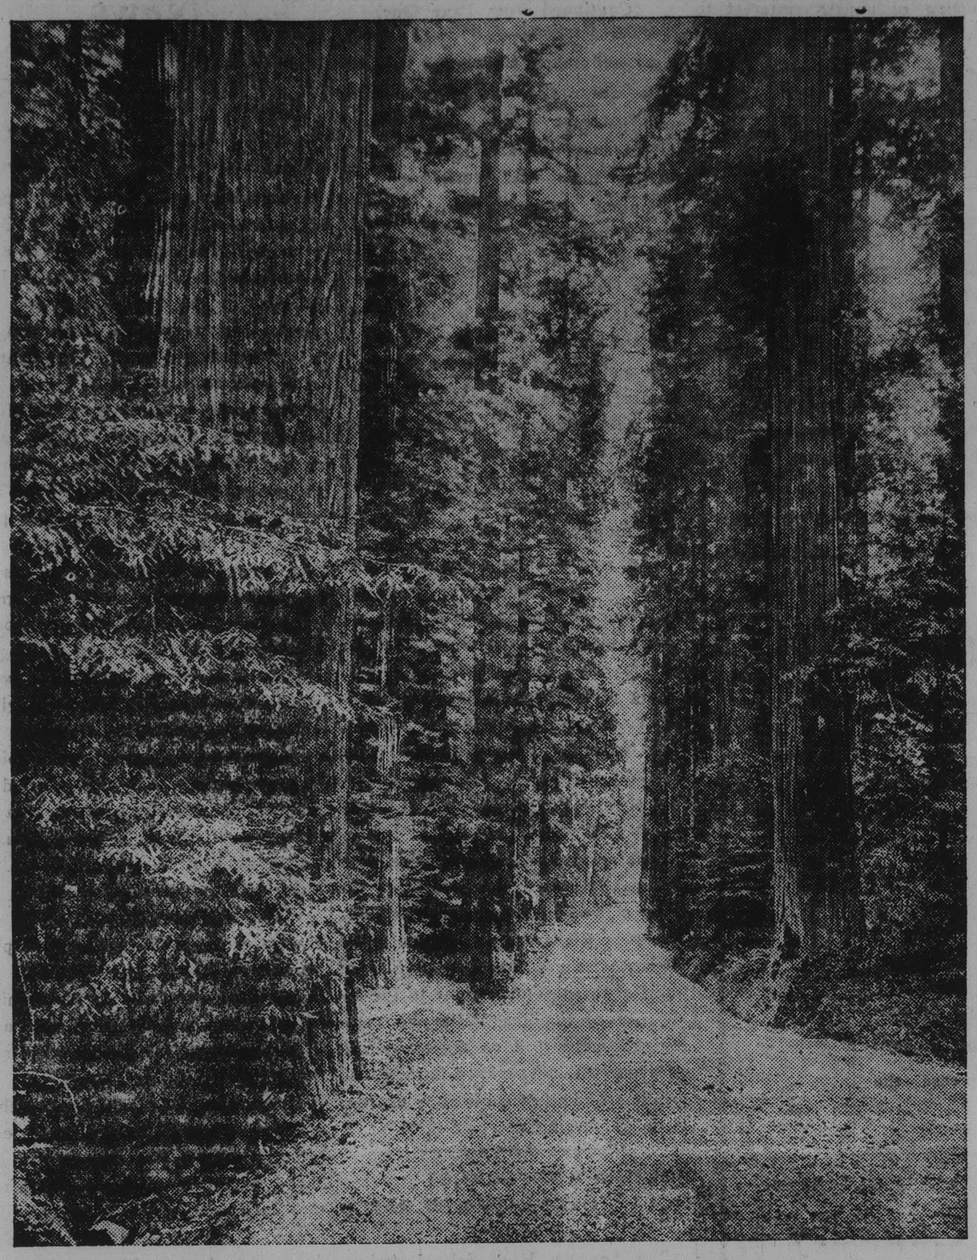
Save The Redwoods---See The Redwoods



The annual report of the Save the Redwoods League is a comprehensive summary of the good work and accomplishments of the League, and proves that many beautiful forests like the one shown in the picture here are being preserved to posterity through the efforts of the organization. Its objects are:

To rescue from destruction, for the enjoyment of this generation and those to come, representative areas of our primeval forests. To establish through federal aid a national redwood park, and through state aid a state redwood park. To purchase redwood groves by private subscription, and to establish memorial groves for individuals and organizations. To obtain the protection of timber along state highways in California, and, when feasible, to secure state and county bond issues for redwood protection. To support reforestation and conservation of our forest areas.

ARE RELATED TO LINCOLN

The twin daughters of Lillian Steiger Lincoln, former Sonoma girl who married Percy W. Lincoln, descendant of the famous family, are to take a prominent part in the coming Lincoln pageant and ball in San Francisco. Their illustrious ancestry on their father's side has been recognized by Frank McGlynn, famous actor, who heads the pageant. The young ladies to be cast in the Lincoln play are nieces of Mrs. R. L. Watt, of Schellville, and grand daughters of Ed Steiger of Agua Caliente.

A press report says:

"Although their great grandfather fought on the 'rebel' side, two bobbed haired San Francisco girls, descendants of Abraham Lincoln, will take part in the Lincoln pageant and ball to be held at Exposition Auditorium April 28th.

"They are Sally Panet and Ruth Lillian Lincoln, twin 17 year old daughters of Percy Woodson Lincoln, direct descendants of the Virginia Lincolns, who urged their cousin Abe not to sign the emancipation proclamation.

"Frank McGlynn, the actor whose impersonation of the great emancipator will be the feature of the auditorium entertainment, has cast the girls in a beautiful tableau scene of '61, where crinoline gowns and poke bonnets form a prelude for stirring Civil War events and patriotic pageantry.

"Proceeds of the entertainment, which is being given under joint auspices of the old Lincoln School Boys' Association and Mayor Rolph's citizen committee, will go toward the erection of a Lincoln monument in the Civic Center.

W. H. BUSH ANSWERS THE FINAL SUMMONS

William H. Bush, well known throughout Sonoma county, and a Civil War veteran, died at his home at Boyes Springs Sunday morning after an illness of several months. He was one of the oldest members of Antietam Post, G. A. R.

Mr. Bush was born in New York 72 years ago and had been a resident of Sonoma county for 20 years. He served during the Civil War with a New York regiment of infantry. He was a member of Cement Lodge No. 11, F. & A. M., of Clairmount, South Dakota.

He was twice married. His first wife having died in the East several years ago, Mr. Bush later married her sister, who survives him.

There are four children, the issue of the first marriage: Libbie Bush, Mrs. M. E. Steele, C. W. Bush, and Mrs. E. W. Dinsmore, all of Clairmont, South Dakota.

Mr. Bush was a close friend of C. W. Seeley of Petaluma, and of Adjutant T. K. Jones of Antietam Post, G. A. R. Mr. Seeley was present when the veteran passed on to his rest.

For many days prior to his death the aged veteran had been in the shadow of eternity, and his loved ones kept faithful vigil until the end came.

Funeral services were in Petaluma.

JUDGE CAMPBELL REVERSES RULING

Ruling in favor of A. P. Maskell, and Flynn & Collins, a San Francisco firm, which had appealed from an award of $53.35 given by the justice court at Sonoma to Antonio Caccia, Superior Judge Ross Campbell- reversed the judgment of the Sonoma court. The suit was the result of damage claims said to have been incurred when a car driven by Maskell is said to have collided with a machine driven by Caccia.

CONGRESS AND HOW CALIFORNIA BENEFITED

Senator Shortridge has called attention to much legislation enacted during the last session of congress directly affecting and beneficial to California. "No state in the Union fared better," he remarked. The list of benefits derived by our state from the federal government is a long and interesting one.

Our Harbors

Here is what we find as to our harbors, beginning at San Diego and running up to Crescent City in Del Norte county:

New naval pier, San Diego, to cost $1,010,000.

Fuurther dredging in San Diego harbor.

Los Angeles and Long Beach harbor project, $6,500,000.

Survey of channel from Redwood City to deep water in San Francisco Bay.

Our Rivers

Survey to determine method of preventing mud flow from Mount Shasta glacier into the Sacramento River.

Our Agricultural Interests

There were many appropriations that will directly benefit our farmers, for example:

Survey of proposed Deer Creek irrigation project, near Chico.

Provision for new reservoir for Orland irrigation project.

Appropriation for survey to determine feasibility of Salt Water dam, at confluence of Sacramento and the San Joaquin Rivers, to protect the lands of the delta.

Millions of dollars for co-operative demonstration work and agricultural extension work by agricultural department, much of which will be expended in California.

Fifty thousand dollars for investigation of citrus canker.

More than $100,000 for irrigation development in arid regions, much of which will be spent in California.

Thirty thousand dollars for improvement of nut culture, much of which will be spent in California.

Nearly $1,500,000 for federal aid in marketing crops which will be of great aid to California farmers.

More than $800,000 for investigations of insect pests that attack agricultural products, much of which will be spent in California.

Over $500,000 for predatory animal control. This item is of very great importance to California.

Our Forests

Our forests and timber lands came in for generous treatment, for example:

Federal forest experiment station to be established in California.

Enactment of bill amending McNary reforestation act which will be of special benefit to Southern California in prevention of fires.

Nearly $600,000 for investigation of diseases of forest trees and insects that attack trees which will be of incalculable benefit to California forests.

Over $600,000 for forest fire co-operation and in that connection an airplane patrol of forests to guard against fires.

Public Parks

Ample appropriations were provided for the improvement and maintenance of our national parks, including those in our state.

Of great benefit to California was the enactment of the Frederick's bill, granting Los Angeles county perpetual right to 5000 acres of the Angeles National Forest lands for free public camping purposes.

The bill providing for special 50 cent diamond jubilee silver coins o commemorate California's diamond jubilee celebration will serve to add interest to that great historic event.

Soldier Legislation

For the benefit of the World War and other veterans, we obtained an appropriation of $1,500,000 to complete an addition to the Sawtelle hospital. congress voted $76,000,000.

The delegation in house and senate worked in harmony, and had the cordial co-operation of President Calvin Coolidge.
